I. PREAMBLE

UNIQLO's access to and sale of the products featured on the Site are governed by these Terms and Conditions (the "Terms and Conditions"). These Terms and Conditions set forth the rights and obligations of any user (hereinafter, "you", "your", the "Customer") and UNIQLO ("we", "us", "our").

Please read the Terms and Conditions carefully and expressly accept them before using the Site or ordering any Products (hereinafter the "Product(s)") on our Site.

The purchase of Products on our Site is exclusively reserved for orders from end consumers, natural persons of legal age, non-merchants (acting exclusively for their personal needs and not directly related to a commercial activity), who have full legal capacity to enter into the obligations set out in the Terms and Conditions.

Therefore, you declare that you are acting as a consumer and do not intend to resell the Products for any commercial purpose, in the commercial channels of first-party sales.

We recommend that you print and keep a copy of these Terms and Conditions applicable to your order for future reference if necessary.

This document can be printed and/or saved using the usual functionality of your Internet browser: (usually "File" → "Save As"). You can download this document in PDF format and archive it by clicking here. To be able to open the PDF file, you will need the free Adobe Reader program (downloadable from www.adobe.com) or a similar program that supports PDF format.

Please note that the use of this Site and our business relationship are also governed by a number of other policies that we invite you to read carefully before placing an order, namely:

- Privacy and Cookie Policy
- Return Policy, detailing the conditions governing the cancellation of orders and the return of Products purchased on uniqlo.com.

II. UPDATES TO TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Your rights under the Terms and Conditions will be governed by the latest version of the Terms and Conditions in force as published on this page of this Site and accepted by you at the time of your order.

We reserve the right to make any changes to these Terms and Conditions that we deem necessary and useful. Any changes or updates to the Terms and Conditions on the Site and the date of update appearing therein will be revised to indicate the date of the last modification. This new version will only apply to orders placed after its publication.

III. ACCOUNTS AND CREDENTIALS

If you wish to create a Customer account, you will need to choose a username and password when you register.

However, you can also make your purchases using the "Checkout as guest" function which does not require the creation of a Customer account.

You guarantee the accuracy of the information provided for the purposes of your purchases and you undertake to take all necessary measures to ensure its confidentiality.

Your username and password on the Site are strictly personal and confidential and their use is presumed to be made in your name only.

UNIQLO is not responsible for any fraudulent use of your account by any third party. You must make every effort to keep your password safe and should not disclose it to anyone. If it is compromised, you must change it. You may not transfer or sell your username to anyone, nor permit, either directly or indirectly, anyone to use your username or password.

You may be liable for all actions taken under your credentials, except in the event of a failure of the Site attributable to UNIQLO or UNIQLO's failure to ensure the security or confidentiality of your personal data.

IV. ACCESSING THE SITE AND MANAGING YOUR ACCOUNT

From time to time, we may restrict access to some parts of the Site, or our entire Site, to users who have registered with us.

We reserve the right to block your account in the event of a serious breach by you of any provisions of these Terms and Conditions or serious suspicion of fraud or abuse from your Customer account, or violations of any applicable laws.

Before taking such action, and where reasonably possible, we will inform you of the reasons for the contemplated measure and give you the opportunity to provide your observations or supporting information. We will take your explanations into account before making a final decision, unless immediate action is necessary to prevent ongoing fraud, security risks, or significant operational or financial harm.

Any measures taken will be proportionate to the seriousness and frequency of the conduct identified and based on objective criteria.

Nothing in this clause shall limit or affect your statutory rights as a consumer, including your right of withdrawal, in accordance with applicable law.

You can delete your account at any time by visiting your account and selecting the "delete my Uniqlo account" section or by contacting our customer service [link]. The deletion of your account, for any reason whatsoever, implies the loss of all data, information and access to the services offered on our Site.

V. ORDER

You will be guided through the entire order process through a series of simple instructions posted on our Site.

The process to follow is as follows:

- You can select the Products you wish to purchase by clicking on "Add to Cart"
- At any time, you can check the contents of your shopping cart by clicking on the icon or on "View Cart" in order to identify, if necessary, any errors made in the entry of the Products, delete a Product initially selected, modify the quantities or add a Product
- When you click on "Continue to Checkout" to validate your cart, you can log in to your account, or create one or use the guest option, then you will have to choose the delivery method:

- Pick-up at a store within 14 days ("Click & Collect"):
You will receive an email letting you know that your Products can be picked up in-store within a maximum of 14 calendar days. Any order not collected in store after within this period will be cancelled and refunded within one week of cancellation.
 - Delivery to your home or to a collection point:
When your Product is shipped from our warehouse, an email confirming the shipment and the progress of the delivery will be sent to you.
- You also have the option of picking up your Products in store on the same day ("Pick Up Today"):
- This service, visible on the Product page, allows you to collect your order in store within an indicative period of two (2) hours following the validation of the order by email confirming the availability of the Product. This time frame is provided for informational purposes only and applies exclusively during the opening hours of the selected store. It is also subject to the availability of the Products. This period does not constitute a contractual guarantee.
- The "Pick Up Today" service is only available in selected stores. If the selected store is out of stock, the service will not be available. For more information, please click on this link.
- You will be then invited to read our Terms and Conditions, along with our returns policy and privacy policy.
 - To complete your purchase, you will need to accept the Terms and Conditions by ticking the box "I confirm that I have read and agree to UNIQLO's terms and conditions" and you will be prompted to choose your payment method before clicking "Place Order" to proceed with the payment for your purchase.

 - If you have a discount coupon, this will need to be entered during the order confirmation process to be valid.
 - In some cases, your bank may request a pre-authorisation at the time of the order, but the card will only be debited when the order is shipped to the selected address or store. In any case, the amount debited will correspond to the Product(s) actually shipped, plus any delivery costs according to the delivery methods chosen.
 - You have the option to cancel your order within 30 minutes of placing it online by clicking on "Cancel Order".

VI. PRODUCT INFORMATION

(i) Product features

The Products offered for sale by UNIQLO on the Site shall be shown alongside the product descriptions detailing the essential characteristics of each Product, in particular the unit price, the sizes and colours available, the material composition, the geographical traceability of the major manufacturing steps, as well as any special features, and one or more photographs of the Product. You are invited to refer to such collective descriptions to determine whether the characteristics of the Product correspond to those you are looking for, bearing in mind that the choice and purchase of a Product would be your own responsibility.

The Products are described and presented on the Site as accurately as possible. UNIQLO has taken all reasonable precautions to ensure that the colour and pattern of the Products photographed on the Site are true to the original Products, but there may be minor differences.

The descriptions of the Products for sale on the Site are therefore given for information purposes only. The colours that are displayed on the Site can depend on many factors, including the display settings of your computer, so we cannot assure you that the colours displayed on your screen will accurately reflect the colours of the Products you receive and UNIQLO cannot be held responsible for any such minor differences.

Similarly, the sizes indicated on the Site are given for information purposes only.

(ii) Product availability

The Products are marketed within the limit of available stocks. UNIQLO regularly updates information about the availability of Products on the Site, but there may be a delay between the real-time stock status and the update of the stock on the Site, resulting in an ordered Product no longer being available. If the ordered Product is no longer in stock at the time the order is processed, UNIQLO will promptly notify you of the cancellation of the order citing unavailable stock as the reason for cancellation.

If you have already paid for the Products, we will refund you in full, as soon as possible, with the understanding that this refund will be made no later than 14 days from the date of cancellation of your order.

VII. INVOICING

An electronic invoice will be made available to you on our Site on your account page, under “Purchase history”, or electronically by clicking on the PDF document in your order shipping confirmation email if you do not have an account.

If you lose an invoice, you should contact our customer service via our Contact Us page.

We invite you to keep your invoice for your records and as a reference to our contract.

Purchases made via the Site are subject to value added tax (VAT) at the rate in force on the day of sale.

As purchases made on our Site are deemed to be made on a consumer basis, we are unable to accommodate requests to amend invoices already issued or to reissue them as VAT invoices for businesses purposes.

VIII. PRICE

UNIQLO has taken all reasonable precautions to ensure that the prices displayed on the Site are accurate. However, material errors may occur from time to time.

In the event of an obvious pricing error, UNIQLO reserves the right not to accept your order.

If we discover a manifest pricing error before the Products are dispatched, we may either notify you as soon as possible or decide to refuse your order. In the first case, we will offer you the option to reconfirm your order at the corrected price or cancel your order. If we decide to refuse your order, we will refund or re-credit any amounts charged to your original method of payment.

All prices of the Products are displayed in the local currency, including VAT at the rate applicable in the country of delivery at the time of the order, unless expressly stipulated otherwise, and do not include additional delivery costs. Delivery costs may be charged and will be clearly displayed during the checkout process.

The total delivery costs will be detailed and identified on the payment screen as well as on your invoice.

If you have a coupon or code to use, it is your responsibility to check whether it is applicable online and/or in-store, and to ensure that you apply this in the appropriate section during the checkout process. Only one coupon can be used per order. It will not be possible to apply a coupon, or a discount offer once you have confirmed your order. The terms and conditions of such coupons or promotions can be viewed on the relevant Product page.

IX. REFUSAL TO PROCESS AN ORDER

We reserve the right not to proceed with the order placed, which may be for reasons including, but not limited to:

- order(s) exceeding, based on their content, quantity or frequency, the needs of an average individual consumer and more generally, in the event of requests that are deemed to be abnormal and/or fraudulent in nature;
- payment authorisation cannot be obtained from the bank;
- a manifest material error in pricing or description, or in the Product information or certain promotional terms has been identified;
- orders that do not comply with our Terms and Conditions;
- and in the event of any other legitimate reason

If there are any problems with your order, we will contact you as soon as possible.

X. INTERNATIONAL PRICING

Credit and/or debit card issuers or banks will set the exchange rate applicable to your purchase and may charge a processing or handling fee in connection with this payment, which you will be required to pay.

XI. DELIVERY

Subject to the availability of the Products, and except in exceptional circumstances, we will endeavor to deliver the Product(s) to you within the time frame set out in your order once such order has been accepted by us.

- You have the option to select multiple addresses for delivery, including an address that is different from your billing address. Please note that UNIQLO will not make any deliveries to a PO Box and there are restrictions on the delivery locations served by UNIQLO for Products ordered on the Site.
- Products that are subject to alterations at your request may result in longer delivery times, and you will be informed of the delivery date accordingly.
- Unfortunately, delays may occur due to unforeseen circumstances or for reasons such as the place of delivery. If we are unable to meet the indicative time given when choosing the delivery method for any reason, and in any case within a maximum period of 30 days from the date of order confirmation, we will inform you of such delay and offer you an option to either accept a new delivery date or cancel your order for a full refund.
- UNIQLO cannot be held liable for any error in your contact details as provided by you at the time of the order or any subsequent change of address requested by you if we have not been given sufficient notice.
- For the purposes of these Terms and Conditions, "delivery" will be deemed to have been made, or the order will be deemed to have been "delivered", when you or a third party designated by you is in physical possession of the Products, which may take the form of the delivery of your order to the selected delivery address, upon presentation of a QR Code or PIN code sent to the email address you have indicated and an identity document.

- All risks in the Products you order (including the risk of loss and/or damage to the Products) will pass to you at the time of "delivery".

XII. RECEIPT OF THE ORDER

Upon receipt of the order, we invite you to check the conformity of the Products received in execution of your order. Any anomaly concerning the delivery (in particular: missing or damaged Products, damaged packages) must be notified immediately and at the latest within 48 hours upon receipt of the order, to the customer service in order to allow us to carry out an investigation with the carrier and/or to exercise recourse against the carrier within the time limits provided for by law, if necessary.

You will need to contact customer service, within the time frame indicated above.

Our customer service can be reached:

- By chat support from Monday to Friday from 10am to 9pm and Saturday and Sunday from 11am to 6pm by visiting our FAQs
- By email: contactuseu@uniqlo.eu or via the "Contact us" page

It is specified that the provisions of this clause do not deprive you of the benefit of the right of withdrawal provided for elsewhere in our Terms and Conditions.

XIII. RIGHT OF WITHDRAWAL

You have a right of withdrawal, which you may exercise to return the products you have ordered to us without having to give a reason. You must inform us clearly and unambiguously that you wish to withdraw from the contract. You do not need to use the word 'withdrawal'.

The withdrawal period ends 14 days after the day on which you or a third party designated by you, other than the carrier, took possession of the goods, or, in the case of multiple items in a separately delivered order, 14 days from the day on which you or a third party designated by you, other than the carrier, took possession of the last item.

You must inform us by any means, in a clear and unambiguous manner, that you wish to withdraw and in particular by writing to us at UNIQLO EUROPE LTD (Customer Service), 103-113 Regent Street, London, United Kingdom W1B 4HL or by completing the withdrawal form available below.

You can also exercise your right to withdraw online using the functionality "withdraw from the contract here" available in the footer section of the Site's homepage or contact us using our contact form and choosing "Return & Exchange". If you use either of these options, we will send you an acknowledgement of receipt of your notice of withdrawal by e-mail as soon as possible.

The date of your notice of withdrawal is the date you send your notice to UNIQLO, so it's best to keep a copy of it.

You must also return the Products to us by post in their original condition, at your own risk, and no later than 14 calendar days following the notification of your withdrawal. No refund can be made in store if you wish to use your right of withdrawal.

Please note that you have to bear the expenses of returning the items to UNIQLO. You may find the address for your return that is depending on the country your order was delivered to in our FAQ: [\[LINK\]](#).

The Products must not have been used, worn and/or washed and must be returned in or with their original packaging.

The right of withdrawal does not exist for Products that cannot be returned, such as:

- Underwear (men and women)
- Socks
- Swimwear (men's and women's)
- Masks
- Washed or worn clothing (excluding defective clothing)
- Products altered online, in-store or by a third party

We will refund you as soon as possible and no later than 14 calendar days from the date on which we were notified of your intention to withdraw, which period may be deferred until the day on which we receive the returned Product(s). All our refunds are made by the same means of payment used at the time of the order, and we reserve the right to deduct from the refund any amount for returned Products that are damaged.

As part of the right of withdrawal, you will be reimbursed for the amount of the returned Products, including the amount corresponding to the standard delivery costs (initial shipping costs). Note that the standard delivery costs (initial shipping fees) will be reimbursed only if all Products of your order are returned. If you selected any upgraded shipping method other than our standard delivery option, we would refund only the amount that standard shipping would have cost for your order.

You can use the sample withdrawal form below, which can be downloaded by clicking on this link:

Should the Customer decide to return Product(s) after the expiry of the Withdrawal Period, without having exercised the right of withdrawal, this may be done in accordance with UNIQLO's thirty (30)-day Return & Exchange Policy. Please note that for such returns, standard delivery costs (initial shipping fees) shall not be reimbursed if all Products of your order are returned.
