Therefore, you declare that you are acting as a consumer and do not intend to resell the Products for any commercial purpose, in the commercial channels of first-party sales. We recommend that you print and keep a copy of these Terms and Conditions applicable to your order for future reference if necessary.

This document can be printed and/or saved using the usual functionality of your Internet browser: (usually "File" - > "Save As"). You can download this document in PDF format and archive it by clicking here. To be able to open the PDF file, you need the free Adobe Reader program

If you wish to create a Customer account, you will need to choose a username and password when you register.

However, you can also make your purchases using the "confirm my order as a guest" function which does not require the creation of a Customer account.

You guarantee the accuracy of the information provided for the purposes of your purchases and you undertake to take all necessary measures to ensure its confidentiality.

Your usernames and passwords on the Site are strictly personal and confidential and their use is presumed to be made in your name.

UNIQLO is not responsible for any fraudulent use of your account by any third party.

You may be liable for all actions taken under your credentials, except in the event of a failure of the Site attributable to UNIQLO or UNIQLO's failure to ensure the security or confidentiality of your personal data.

IV. ACCESSING THE SITE AND MANAGING YOUR ACCOUNT

We reserve the right to block your account in the event of a serious breach by you of the provisions of these Terms and Conditions or serious suspicion of fraud from your Customer account, or in the event of violations of applicable laws in this area.

Before taking such action, and where reasonably possible, we will inform you of the reasons for the contemplated measure and give you the opportunity to provide your observations or supporting information. We will take your explanations into account before making a final decision, unless immediate action is necessary to prevent ongoing fraud, security risks, or significant operational or financial harm.

Any measures taken will be proportionate to the seriousness and frequency of the conduct identified and based on objective criteria.

Nothing in this clause shall limit or affect your statutory rights as a consumer, including your right of withdrawal, in accordance with applicable law.

You can delete your account at any time by visiting your account and selecting the "delete my Uniqlo account" section or by contacting customer service. The deletion of your account, for any reason whatsoever, implies the loss of all data, information and access to the services offered on our Site.

The process to follow is as follows:

In any case, the amount debited will correspond to the Product(s) actually shipped, which may be increased by the lump sum of contribution to the delivery costs according to the delivery methods chosen.
- You have the option to cancel your order free of charge within thirty (30) minutes of placing it online by clicking on "Cancel Order".

VI. PRODUCT INFORMATION

(i) Product features

The Products offered for sale by UNIQLO on the Site are the subject of a descriptive sheet detailing the essential characteristics of each Product, in particular the unit price, the sizes and colors available, the composition, the geographical traceability of the major manufacturing steps, as well as its particular characteristics, and containing one or more photographs of the Product. You are invited to refer to this description sheet in order to determine whether the characteristics of the Product correspond to those you are looking for, the choice and purchase of a Product being placed under your responsibility.

The Products are described and presented on the Site as accurately as possible. UNIQLO has taken all reasonable precautions to ensure that the color and pattern of the Products photographed on the Site are true to the original Products, but there may be minimal differences.

The descriptions of the Products for sale on the Site are therefore given for information purposes only. The colors that are displayed on the Site will depend on many factors, including the display settings of your computer, so we cannot assure you that the colors displayed on your screen will accurately reflect the colors of the Products you receive and UNIQLO cannot be held responsible for any minor differences.

Similarly, the sizes indicated on the Site are given for information purposes only.

(ii) Product availability

The Products are marketed within the limit of available stocks. UNIQLO regularly updates information about the availability of Products on the Site, but there may be a delay between the stock status and the update of the stock on the Site and an ordered Product is no longer available. If the ordered Product is no longer in stock at the time the order is processed, UNIQLO will notify you, without delay, of the cancellation of the order due to unavailable stock.

If you have already paid for the Products, we will refund you in full, as soon as possible, with the understanding that this refund will be made no later than fourteen (14) days from the date of cancellation of your order.

VII. INVOICING

An invoice in electronic format will be made available to you on our Site in your account; or electronically by clicking on the PDF document in your order shipping confirmation email if you do not have an account.

If you lose an invoice, you should contact our customer service via our Contact Us page.

We invite you to keep your invoice for your records and as a reference to our contract.

Purchases made via the Site are subject to value added tax (VAT) at the rate legally in force on the day of sale.

As purchases made on our Site are deemed to be made on a consumer basis, we are unable to accommodate requests to amend invoices already issued or to reissue them as VAT invoices for businesses purposes.

VIII. PRICE

UNIQLO has taken all reasonable precautions to ensure that the prices displayed on the Site are accurate. However, material errors may occur from time to time.

In the event of an obvious pricing error, UNIQLO reserves the right not to accept your order.

If we discover a manifest pricing error before the Products are dispatched, we may either notify you as soon as possible or decide to refuse your order. In the first case, we will offer you the option to reconfirm your order at the corrected price or cancel your order. If we decide to refuse your order, we will refund or re-credit any amounts charged to your credit card or charge card.

All prices of the Products are displayed in Euros, including VAT at the rate applicable in the country of delivery at the time of the order, unless expressly stipulated otherwise, and do not include additional delivery costs. Delivery costs may be charged and will be clearly displayed during the checkout process.

The total delivery costs will be detailed and identified on the payment screen and on your invoice including VAT.

If you have a coupon or promotion, it is your responsibility to check whether it is applicable online and/or in-store and to ensure that you indicate this in the appropriate section during the checkout process. Only one coupon can be used per order. It will not be possible to indicate a coupon or receive a discount offer once you have confirmed your order. The terms and conditions of such coupons or promotions can be seen on the relevant Product page.

IX. REFUSAL TO PROCESS AN ORDER

We reserve the right not to proceed with the order placed for the following reasons:

- In the event of order(s) exceeding, by their content, quantity or frequency, the needs of an average consumer individual and more generally in the event of requests of an abnormal and/or fraudulent nature;
- It is impossible to obtain payment authorization from the bank;
- A manifest material error in pricing or description, or in the Product information or certain promotional terms has been identified;
- In the event of an order that does not comply with our Terms and Conditions;

- And in the event of any other legitimate reason.

If there are any problems with your order, we will contact you as soon as possible.

X. INTERNATIONAL PRICING

Credit and/or charge card issuers or banks will set the exchange rate applicable to your purchase and may charge a processing or handling fee in connection with this payment, which you will be required to pay.

XI. DELIVERY

Subject to the provisions relating to the availability of the Products, and except in exceptional circumstances, we will endeavor to deliver the Product(s) to you within the time frame set out in your order.

- You have the option to select multiple addresses for delivery, including an address that is different from your billing address. Please note that UNIQLO will not make any deliveries to a PO Box and there are restrictions on the delivery locations served by UNIQLO for Products ordered on the Site. Orders placed on this Site may only be delivered to and/or collected from an address located in the Netherlands. We do not offer cross-border shipping to addresses outside the Netherlands. Should you wish your order to be delivered in another country, please order from another UNIQLO website offering delivery and/or collection services in such country. Please note that we currently offer delivery and/or collection services only in certain European countries. A full list of the countries is available [here].
- Products that are subject to alterations at your request may result in longer delivery times and you will be informed of the delivery date accordingly.
- However, delays may occur due to unforeseen circumstances or for reasons such as the place of delivery. If we are unable to meet the indicative time given when choosing the delivery method for any reason, and in any case within a maximum period of thirty (30) days from the date of order confirmation, we will inform you and offer you either to continue the purchase process with a new delivery date, or cancel your order and refund you the full amount you paid.
- UNIQLO cannot be held liable in particular for a subsequent change of address of the Customer that has not been notified to it in good time or for an error in the Customer's contact details provided by the latter at the time of the order.
- For the purposes of these Terms and Conditions, the "delivery" will be deemed to have been made, or the order will be deemed to have been "delivered", at the time you or a third party designated by you is in physical possession of the Products, which will take the form of the delivery of your order to the selected delivery address, upon presentation of a QR Code or PIN code sent to the email address you have indicated and an identity document.
- All risk in the Products you order (including the risk of loss and/or damage to the Products) will pass to you at the time of "delivery".

XII. RECEIPT OF THE ORDER

Upon receipt of the order, we invite you to check the conformity of the Products received in execution of your order. Any anomaly concerning the delivery (in particular: missing or damaged Products, damaged packages) must be notified immediately and at the latest within forty eight (48) hours upon receipt of the order, to the customer service in order to allow us to carry out an investigation with the carrier and/or to exercise recourse against the carrier within the time limits provided for by law, if necessary.

You will need to contact customer service, within the time frame indicated above.

Our customer service can be reached:

- By phone: +31 20 808 1489 from Monday to Friday from 10 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.
- By instant assistance (chat) from Monday to Friday from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. and Saturday and Sunday from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. by visiting our FAQs.
- By email: contactusnl@uniqlo.eu or via the "Contact us" page

It is specified that the provisions of this clause do not deprive you of the benefit of the right of withdrawal provided for elsewhere in our Terms and Conditions.

XIII. RIGHT OF WITHDRAWAL

You have a right of withdrawal that you can exercise within fourteen (14) calendar days of the date of receipt of your order (at home, in a UNIQLO store or at a participating collection point) (the “Withdrawal Period”) to return the Products ordered to us without having to give any reason.

The withdrawal period ends 14 days after the day on which you or a third party designated by you, other than the carrier, took possession of the goods, or, in the case of multiple items in a separately delivered order, 14 days from the day on which you or a third party designated by you, other than the carrier, took possession of the last item.

You must inform us by any means, in a clear and unambiguous manner, that you wish to withdraw and in particular by writing to us at UNIQLO EUROPE LTD (Customer Service), 103-113 Regent Street, London, W1B 4HL (United Kingdom) or by completing the withdrawal form available below.

You can also exercise your right to withdraw online using the functionality “withdraw from the contract here” available in the footer section of the Site’s homepage or contact us using our contact form and choosing "Return & Exchange". You may also use the template withdrawal form below. If you use either of these options, we will send you an acknowledgement of receipt of your notice of withdrawal by e-mail as soon as possible.

The date of your notice of withdrawal is the date you send your notice to UNIQLO, so it's best to keep a copy of it.

You must also return the Products to us by post in their original condition, at your own risk, and no later than fourteen (14) calendar days following the notification of your withdrawal. No refund can be made in store if you wish to use your right of withdrawal. Note that a return cost of € 2.95 will apply and will be deducted from your refund.

The Products must not have been used and/or worn and must be returned in or with their original packaging.

The right of withdrawal does not exist for Products that cannot be returned, such as:

- Underwear (men and women)
- Socks
- Swimwear (men's and women's)
- Masks
- Washed or worn clothing (excluding defective clothing)
- Products altered online, in-store or by a third party

We will refund you as soon as possible and no later than fourteen (14) calendar days from the date on which we were notified of your intention to withdraw, which period may be deferred until the day on which we receive the returned Product(s). All our refunds are made by the same means of payment used at the time of the order and we reserve the right to deduct from the refund any amount for returned Products that are damaged.

As part of the right of withdrawal, you will be reimbursed for the amount of the returned Products, including the amount corresponding to the standard delivery costs (initial shipping costs). Note that the standard delivery costs (initial shipping fees) will be reimbursed only if all Products of your order are returned. If you selected any upgraded shipping method other than our standard delivery option, we will refund only the amount that standard shipping would have cost for your order.

You can use the sample withdrawal form below, which can be downloaded by clicking on this link.

Should the Customer decide to return Product(s) after the expiry of the Withdrawal Period, without having exercised the right of withdrawal, this may be done in accordance with UNIQLO's thirty (30)-day Return & Exchange Policy. Please note that for such returns, standard delivery costs (initial shipping fees) shall not be reimbursed if all Products of your order are returned.

The Site and its content published and integrated by UNIQLO are protected by intellectual property, including, without limitation, copyrights and trademarks.

In these Terms and Conditions, "Intellectual Property Rights" means patents, database rights, copyrights, designs (registered or unregistered), trademarks (whether registered or unregistered) whether figurative, brand names, signs, illustrations, photos, logos appearing on the UNIQLO Products, the Site, accessories or packaging, including the legal means to enforce them.

In the course of our business relationship, all Intellectual Property Rights relating to the Site and falling under these Terms and Conditions are and will remain our exclusive property, and you are not authorised to use any of these Intellectual Property Rights under any circumstances, unless expressly authorised by us to do so. Any creation of an intangible element, resulting from the use of this Site, our trademarks, trade names and signs, service marks, as well as those of the Group, falling under these Terms and Conditions, will automatically belong to us, or to the Group as the case may be.

Any reproduction, representation, modification or adaptation, in whole or in part, of all or part of the elements found on the Site or incorporated therein, is strictly prohibited.

XVI. USE OF OUR SITE

The consultation and use of our Site is your responsibility in your capacity as a user (hereinafter the "User"). Our Site may host, or provide through third parties, links to other sites or resources that we do not control. By clicking on these links, you acknowledge that we cannot guarantee the content of these links and therefore agree to access them at your own risk.

The User is also informed that UNIQLO may be required to temporarily interrupt access to the Site for technical reasons, in particular for reasons of its maintenance. The User accepts these interruptions and waives any claim in this regard.

The use of the Site by the User implies knowledge and acceptance of the characteristics and limits of the technologies inherent to the Internet, in particular with regard to response times to consult or query the server hosting the Site, technical performance, risks of interruption and risks incurred during the transmission of data. Consequently, UNIQLO and, more generally, the Group cannot under any circumstances be held liable, without this list being exhaustive:

- Any information consulted on the Site that is not posted online by UNIQLO
- Any network malfunction preventing the proper functioning of the Site
- Loss of any data
- The malfunction of any software
- The consequences of any computer virus, bug, anomaly or failure

- Any damage caused to the User's computer

XVII. LEGAL GUARANTEE

The Products sold by UNIQLO are subject to the legal guarantee of conformity.

All Products benefit from this legal guarantee, provided that their use has been normal and that the maintenance instructions have been followed.

If you become aware of a lack of conformity, you must notify UNIQLO as soon as possible and UNIQLO will inform you of the procedure to follow to return the Product(s).

Statutory guarantee of conformity

UNIQLO delivers goods that comply with the contract and is liable for any lack of conformity existing at the time of delivery. UNIQLO is also liable for any lack of conformity resulting from incorrect packaging, assembly instructions or installation when this has been charged to UNIQLO by the contract or has been carried out under its responsibility.

The goods are in accordance with the contract:

1° If it is fit for the use usually expected of a similar good and, where applicable:

- if it corresponds to the description given by the UNIQLO and has the qualities that UNIQLO has presented to the buyer in the form of a sample or model;
- if it has the qualities that a buyer can legitimately expect in view of the public statements made by UNIQLO, by the producer or by its representative, in particular in advertising or labelling;

2° Or if it has the characteristics defined by mutual agreement between the parties or is suitable for any special use sought by the buyer, brought to the attention of UNIQLO and which the latter has accepted.

UNIQLO undertakes to deliver to you a Product that is in conformity with the contract and free from non-conformities at the time of delivery of the said Product, in the sense that the Product will be fit for the use usually expected of a similar good and will have the characteristics described at the time of sale.

UNIQLO is also liable for any lack of conformity resulting from packaging, assembly instructions or installation when this has been imposed on it by the contract or has been carried out under its responsibility.

- You have a period of two (2) years from the delivery of the Products to use the legal warranty with UNIQLO. The lack of conformity appearing during the period of twelve (12) months is presumed to exist at the time of issue, unless proven otherwise. You must inform UNIQLO of the lack of conformity within two (2) months of the day on which you discovered the defect.

- You can choose:

a) the repair of the Product, or

b) the replacement of the Product, unless one of these two choices is impossible or entails a manifestly disproportionate cost for UNIQLO, in which case UNIQLO may choose the other solution. Repair or replacement will take place free of charge within a reasonable period following your request.

OR

In the event that (1) UNIQLO refuses to comply with the request, (2) compliance takes place within a period of more than a reasonable period, (3) the non-compliance is serious, or (4) UNIQLO's compliance is unsuccessful:

- to be reimbursed the price paid and the Product to be returned, or
- to keep the Product and to be reimbursed a portion of the price. The total or partial refund will be made no later than fourteen (14) days following your request.

You are not entitled to the cancellation of the sale if the lack of conformity is minor. Any period of immobilization of the property with a view to its repair or replacement suspends the warranty that remained to run until the delivery of the refurbished item.

It is specified that the repair, replacement or refund of the Product will take place at no cost to you and does not prevent the possible award of damages in the event that you are entitled to it.

You may take action before the Dutch courts within two (2) years of the discovery of the defect in the event that UNIQLO has not complied with its request.

XVIII. FORCE MAJEURE

We shall not be liable to perform any of our obligations under these Terms and Conditions in the event of an event beyond our control (force majeure), including, without limitation, strike, lockout, failure of third party systems or networks, cataclysm, fire, earthquake, storm, flood or other natural disaster, civil commotion, act of terrorism, tampering with or intentional damage to materials or data, damage to or destruction of premises or equipment, government regulation or policy, shortage of supplies, and unavailability of services.

Our services under the contract are expected to be suspended for the duration of the force majeure event, and we will be given an additional period equivalent to this effective duration for the purpose of fulfilling our obligations. We will make every reasonable effort to terminate the force majeure event or to find a possible solution that will enable us to perform our obligations under the contract despite the force majeure event.

XXIII. GOVERNING LAW AND JURISDICTION

These Terms and Conditions, as well as the operations and all matters that may arise relating to the use of the Site (including any contracts entered into between you and UNIQLO through the Site) are governed by Dutch law.

In the absence of an amicable settlement or recourse to mediation, any dispute will fall under the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the Dutch courts.

The provisions of this Section shall not deprive you of the protection afforded by mandatory provisions under the law of your country of habitual residence, or frustrate the mandatory jurisdiction of a foreign court.
