Proud of our Japanese heritage, we strive to bridge the gap between the East and the West. That's why we've partnered with Kinokuniya, Japan's leading bookseller, on the UNIQLO BOOKSHELF, a pop-up shop with global appeal. This carefully curated assortment of titles – ranging from children's stories and art to fashion tomes and cookbooks – will elevate knowledge and make connection across cultures for a greater worldview.

A NEW LIFE FOR UNIQLO CLOTHING

"RE.UNIQLO" is a framework that helps maximize the utility of the clothing we make, contributing to a circular society.

"REDUCE" used clothing disposal by extending the lifespan of each garment. "REUSE" clothing with new purposes. "RECYCLE" clothing into new products and materials. Clothing has the power to change the future. None of this can happen without your help. Please bring any UNIQLO items you no longer need to a UNIQLO recycling bin.

THE POWER OF CLOTHING

EMBROIDERY + REPAIR STUDIO

Customize your UNIQLO products with our RE.UNIQLO Studio embroidery service. Choose from a variety of icons inspired by Texas and create one-of-a-kind pieces to keep.

Items cannot be returned or exchanged after embroidery processing. We cannot change the color of the thread. Please consult the design with text and illustrations. We cannot change the size of the embroidery design.

Price $15 H x W = 1.5in x 4in

MADE FOR ALL. MADE FOR TEXAS.

A store that began in the suburbs of Japan is now opening up shop on the second biggest piece of land in America. Big skies, big trucks, big roads, big personalities, and big ambitions. But big only begins to describe the Lone Star State.

After interviewing nearly a dozen Texans, what we found was a land with only a specially heart. Nearby everyone we spoke to emphasized the importance of diversity, tradition, and giving back. These are touchstones that UNIQLO and Texas share.

For its people, traditions, football games, rodeos, its beauty queens and everyday kings, its real Texas barbecue, its dreamers and new ideators—Life is about building things that last, and using the strength of our Texas heritage to make life better for everyone else. Heart leads the way just like it has for UNIQLO since 1984.

In Texas, we found no shortage of leaders who lead that way. So we teamed up with them to make the brand that's Made for All, Made for Texas.

With five stores opening across Houston and Dallas in October, we can't wait for the great state of Texas to meet UNIQLO.

Scan to hear more about their stories.

Jackie Niera
@jackieniera
Equestrian, Horse Trainer & Rodeo Competitor

Jackie didn't grow up having her own horses when she was young, so she learned how to ride on other people's horses. She moved from Florida to Texas to dive more deeply into her passion. Today she is an established horse-trainer.

Marcello Andres
@marcello.andres
Ceramic Artist

Marcello Andres Ortega is a Dallas-based ceramic artist known for his unique sculptural pieces that blend traditional techniques with contemporary design. His functional work is rooted in cultivating conviviality and sentiment.

Christine Ha
@theblindbook
Chef, Author, & Restaurant Owner

Christine is a visually impaired chef who won "MasterChef" season 3. Her cookbook, Recipes from My Home Kitchen, was a New York Times best-seller. She speaks regularly about disability advocacy, and has served as a culinary arts envoy overseas for the American Embassy.

Patrick Hayes
@patrickhayes
Filmmaker, Veteran & Filmmaker

Known in Houston as the "Whole Hog Guy," Patrick is a self-taught filmmaker and Purple Heart recipient. In 2012, Patrick launched Fages BBQ, which focused on catering events and recruiting pop-ups with non-traditional smoked cuts.

Julia Cole
@juliacole
Recording Artist & TV Host

A recording artist and television host, Julia encourages empowering self-worth and good vibes. Influenced by the genre-crossed locker room playbills she and her Texas volleyball teammates blasted, Julia's musical style blends country with rhythm and attitude.
